and Christians, believing the gospel,
and forming churches.

There will be a chance to meet the executive producer, director,

An Upcoming Movie You May Want to See- You might remember the event that took place in Charleston, SC 4 years ago when 9 people lost their lives while attending a Bible study at the Emanuel AME Church. What you may not have heard about was what happened just a few days later when the surviving family members went to court to confront the person responsible. Rather than show anger, they showed forgiveness. Rather than participate in acts of violence, they chose to allow this to be an opportunity to unify Americans.

“Emanuel” is coming to theaters June 17 and 19. It documents these events and the path to forgiveness and healing. This is a true story that will challenge us all to live better and love more.
We have been shown forgiveness by Jesus and we are called to give the same.

Showing at the following theaters:

Oakdale Cinema
5677 Hadley Ave N, Saint Paul, MN 55128

AMC Rosedale 14
1595 Highway 36 W, Roseville, MN 55113

Minor Prophets / Major Messages #2

Habakkuk - “Living By Faith”

Habakkuk ministered in Judah shortly before the Babylonian Captivity. Not much is known about him. His name means “to wrestle with or to embrace,” which is what he did. He wrestled with God and then learned to embrace God and trust Him. Habakkuk represents each of us who have questioned God and yet have learned to trust him.

- I. Habakkuk Wrestles with God - 1:1-2:20
- A. Question #1 - _____ until you judge Your people?
- B. God’s answer - Very _____, but not the way you think.
- C. Question #2 - What about the _____?
- D. God’s answer - I will judge them, but _____.
Until then, my people must live by faith - 1 Peter 4:12-19

- II. Habakkuk Embraces God by Faith - 3:1-20
- A. He prays for _____ in the midst of judgment - vs. 1-2; Luke 18:13
- B. He _____ God for His power and majesty - vs. 3-15; Revelation 4:11
- C. He commits himself to live by _____ - vs. 16-19; 2 Corinthians 5:7

What can we learn from Habakkuk?

1. Faith is both a _____ and a _____ - Ephesians 2:8-9; Hebrews 11:24-25
2. God is not _____ of, or _____ by our doubts and questions - 3:2; Psalm 56:1-4; Acts 4:29
3. Faith can _____ our fears - 1 John 5:4
